CSOs Leaders Convene to Address the Aid Crisis

In response to the growing financial constraints facing Uganda's civil society, UNNGOF convened CSO leaders to discuss funding challenges, share strategies for resilience, and chart a way forward. Learn More.

The Impact of USAID's Funding Suspension on Uganda's Civil Society

As one of the largest bilateral donors to Uganda, USAID has been instrumental in supporting governance, human rights, education, and health programs. This funding suspension raises urgent questions about the sustainability of Uganda's civil society organizations (CSOs) and their ability to continue delivering essential services to the population.

This provides an opportunity for CSOs to rethink their financial models and resilience strategies. The current situation underscores the need for local ownership and sustainable financing. Learn More.

Bushenyi Citizens Demand for Accountability Over Gross Mismanagement of Funds for Kabushaho Seed School Play Ground

A group of vigilant citizens in Bushenyi District came together to demand accountability for the alleged gross mismanagement of funds meant for the development of the Kabushaho Seed School playground, led by the Western Ankole Civil Society Forum (WACSOFF). Their efforts culminated in the citizens initiating a citizen's arrest of the Bushenyi District Engineer, Mr. Mbonimpa Barnabas, who they allege is at the center of the mismanagement scandal. Upcoming Webinar

We are excited to invite you to this webinar on 6th March 2025, where we will explore the evolving philanthropic sectors in Africa and Asia. As the world continues to change, new opportunities, challenges and trends are emerging that local organizations can harness for greater impact.

In this session, experts Stigmata Tenga, Executive Director from Africa Philanthropy Network, and Annelotte Walsh, Director of Research from Centre for Asian Philanthropy and Society will shine their lights on important questions, such as:

- What emerging trends are shaping the philanthropic world in Africa and Asia?
- What unique opportunities exist for local organizations to leverage in these regions?
- What are the implications of the great political shifts that are taking place at the moment?
- How do cultural and religious traditions influence giving behaviors across these regions?

Don't miss this chance to connect with experts who can help you navigate the developments ahead.

Register now and be part of the conversation! We look forward to seeing you there.
